

Special Terms and Conditions of Progressive Disability Compensation

In addition to AVB 200/2008 § 6, clause 1.2.7, compensation for disability with a progressive disability scale (300 percent), provided that this is agreed in the insurance policy, shall be calculated as follows:

1. For the amount of the degree of disability which does not exceed 25 per cent, the disability sum specified in the insurance policy,
2. For the amount of the degree of disability which exceeds 25 per cent but does not exceed 50 per cent, thrice the disability sum specified in the insurance policy,
3. For the amount of the degree of disability which exceeds 50 per cent four times the disability sum specified in the insurance policy.

Progressive disability compensation and the supplementary premium charged for this cover shall lapse at the end of the insurance year when the insured person reaches the age of 67. In the event of accidents which occur after this time, compensation for disability shall be paid according to the terms of § 6, clause 1.2.7 AVB 200/2008.

IMPACTS OF PROGRESSIVE DISABILITY INSURANCE

If the disability within the meaning of AVB 200/2008, § 6, clause 1.2.7 gives rise to compensation in excess of 25% of the sum insured in the event of disability, this compensation shall increase according to the following scale:
